About me

My name is Ellen Brandstetter and I'm living in Lindhorst, nearby Hannover in Germany.

Before I graduated in 2014 as a certified CVT teacher I first privately studied acting and classical singing.

Then I became a registered Teacher and Therapist of Respiration, Speech and Voice, a Functional Voice Teacher and furthermore gained a bunch of experiences with body work and therapy.

I worked at a clinic for voice rehabilitation, where people with voice disorders of all kinds of professions could get stationary speech therapy.

I started my own business in 2005. It includes singing lessons, seminars, coachings and a registered practise for providing voice- and speechtherapy.

If you have any questions or you need further information, please feel free to contact me!

I would be happy to help you in any way.
